

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Adjunct Instructor – Bible

Mount Vernon Nazarene University exists to shape lives through educating the whole person and cultivating Christ-likeness for lifelong learning and service.

Mount Vernon Nazarene University (MVNU) is an intentionally Christian teaching university for traditional age students, graduate students, and working adults who seek opportunities to learn and grow in an academic community of faith. The University provides the context for a transformational experience through excellent academics, service opportunities, caring relationships, and a nurturing spiritual and social environment. Faculty, staff, and students are challenged to achieve their highest potential, to become increasingly Christ-like and to make a difference in their world through lifelong service.

The University seeks a part-time Adjunct Instructor in Bible, with a focus in Old Testament and facility in Ancient Hebrew for its Theology and Philosophy School on the Mount Vernon main campus.

Responsibilities for this position include:

- Adequately prepare all course materials and lessons (note that preparation time will vary based on instructor experience in teaching that course)
- Provide each student with clear course expectations, evaluations and timelines through carefully written topical outlines and approved, standardized syllabus
- Provide interesting and relevant assignments for students that demonstrate learning outcomes in a real-life setting
- Suitably challenge, engage, serve and communicate with students to encourage their participation and learning while maintaining mutual value and respect
- Complete grade books, final grade sheets, learning assessments and final exam assessments in a timely manner
- Respond to student questions in a timely manner
- Identify and refer at-risk students to specific academic support services
- Ensure course and program learning outcomes are delivered as defined by the syllabus

Expectations for the successful candidate:

- Wesleyan Holiness confession of faith and experience (Statement of Faith required at application)
- Candidate must have obtained at least a conferred Master's Degree from an accredited U.S. college/university or international equivalent, with at least 18 hours of graduate work directly in the field of Bible. Old Testament concentration and Hebrew language preferred.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office
- Expertise in interpersonal and oral presentation/written communication skills
- Engaging classroom style and appreciation of successful instructional approaches for a range of academic abilities

Interested candidates should send a curriculum vita, names of three references with contact information, a one to two-page statement of educational philosophy, a one to two-page statement of faith, and copies of university transcripts to:

Dr. Doug Van Nest, Dean
School of Theology and Philosophy
Mount Vernon Nazarene University
